

Join us for a screening of

Mickey Mouse Monopoly

The Disney Company's massive success in the 20th century is based on creating an image of innocence, magic and fun. Its animated films in particular are almost universally lauded as wholesome family entertainment, enjoying massive popularity among children and endorsement from parents and teachers.

Mickey Mouse Monopoly takes a close and critical look at the world these films create and the stories they tell about race, gender and class. This film analyzes Disney's cultural pedagogy, examines its corporate power, and explores its vast influence on our global culture.

Friday, October 30th, 12-1 pm, S&E Events Room

Refreshments Served!

No RSVP required